

(3) The maximum amount of compensation or the maximum number of compensation payments allowable under such law has already been paid; or

(4) The claimant does not meet one or more conditions of eligibility for workers' compensation payments under applicable State law; or

(5) The claimant otherwise establishes to the satisfaction of the Office that the filing of a claim under State law would be futile.

(b) Where the Office determines that a claimant is required to file a State claim under this section, the Office shall so notify the claimant. Such notice shall instruct the claimant to file a State claim within 30 days of such notice. If no such State claim is filed within the 30-day period, no benefits shall be payable under this part to the claimant for any period between July 1, and December 31, 1973.

(c) The failure of a claimant to comply with paragraph (a) of this section shall not absolve any operator of its liability for the payment of benefits to a claimant for periods of eligibility occurring on or after January 1, 1974.

(d) The deputy commissioner may determine that a claimant is ineligible for benefits under section 415 of part B of title IV of the Act without requiring the claimant to file a claim under a State workers' compensation law.

§ 725.404 Development of evidence—general.

(a) Employment history. Each claimant shall furnish the deputy commissioner with a complete and detailed history of the coal miner's employment and, upon request, supporting documentation.

(b) Matters of record. Where it is necessary to obtain proof of age, marriage or termination of marriage, death, family relationship, dependency (see subpart B of this part), or any other fact which may be proven as a matter of public record, the claimant shall furnish such proof to the deputy commissioner upon request.

(c) Documentary evidence. If a claimant is required to submit documents to the deputy commissioner, the claimant shall submit either the original, a certified copy or a clear readable copy thereof. The Deputy commissioner or administrative law judge may require the submission of an original document or certified copy thereof, if necessary.

(d) Submission of insufficient evidence. In the event a claimant submits insufficient evidence regarding any matter, the deputy commissioner shall inform the claimant of what further evidence is necessary and request that such evidence be submitted within a specified reasonable time which may, upon request, be extended for good cause.

§ 725.405 Development of medical evidence; scheduling of medical examinations and tests.

(a) Upon receipt of a claim, the deputy commissioner shall ascertain whether the claim was filed by or on account of a miner as defined in § 725.202(a), and in the case of a claim filed on account of a deceased miner, whether the claim was filed by an eligible survivor of such miner as defined in subpart B of this part.

(b) In the case of a claim filed by or on behalf of a miner, the deputy commissioner shall, where necessary, schedule the claimant for a medical examination and testing under § 725.406.

(c) In the case of a claim filed by or on behalf of a survivor of a miner, the deputy commissioner shall obtain whatever medical evidence is necessary and available for the development and evaluation of the claim.

(d) The deputy commissioner shall, where appropriate, collect other evidence necessary to establish:

(1) The nature and duration of the miner's employment; and

(2) All other matters relevant to the determination of the claim.

(e) If at any time during the processing of the claim by the deputy commissioner, the evidence establishes that the claimant is not entitled to benefits under the Act, the deputy commissioner may terminate evidentiary development of the claim and proceed as appropriate.

§ 725.406 Medical examinations and tests.

(a) Medical examinations and tests authorized by the deputy commissioner shall be conducted, if possible, in the vicinity of the miner's residence by
